

Dr. Aifen Sui,

Senior Expert and Automotive Security Architect, leading Automotive Security Research in Huawei Germany Research Center

She earned Doctoral Degree in applied cryptography in 2003. Since then she has been working in cyber security domains including security model, access control, system security and network security. She has published 40+ papers and received 40+ patents. She joined Huawei in 2014. Before that, she has been working with Siemens for 10 years as senior key expert and as postdoctoral researcher in University of Hong Kong.